The local market for spot cotton was steady and unchanged.

THE PRESIDENT. In the great anxiety to see the body of President McKinley many women were caught in the terrible crowd and trampled upon. Many children were crushed and re-ceived serious injury. Ambulances had to be called to remove many of the injured to

The features of Mr. McKinley are much changed, the face giving evidence of great suffering.

Business men of large interests have ex-pressed confidence in President Roosevelt's administration.

It is expected that eventually, or at the conclusion of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, Secretary Hay will give way to Secretary

Mrs. Roosevelt called at the Executive Mansion to pay her respects to the late President McKinley's wife. President Roosevelt takes up the duties of his office in Washington. He has invited the present members of the Cabinet to remain and has reappointed them.

All of the curtains were closely drawn on the President's funeral train, except the car which contained the casket. This was

Despite the fact that a heavy rain fell during the entire day in Washington, throngs stood bareheaded on the streets while the funeral procession passed. The Ecumenical Methodist Conference

London closed its session yesterday with a memorial service for President McKinley. Mrs. Garrett A. Hobart, widow of the Vice President under Mr. McKinley's first term, was one of the mourners at the Capi-tol yesterday.

Members of Mr. McKinley's old regiment, the Twenty-third Ohio, will act as guard of honor at the ceremonles at Canton to-

The remains of the dead President will lie in state at the Courthouse at Canton to-day and then be removed to his home. All of the nations of the world were represented at the funeral services over the late President at the Capitol.

Three special trains were required to convey the funeral party from Washington to Canton.

funeral services at the Capitol, but re-covered and walked unaided from her carriage to the train when the funeral party

The presidential funeral train will reach Canton at 11 o'clock to-day. In the crush to secure admittance to the Capitol during the funeral services nearly one hundred people were injured, some of them quite seriously.

Grover Cleveland, the only living exPresident, was among the distinguished men at the funeral services in Washington.

LOCAL AND SUBURBAN. Nearly every wholesale house in St. Louis will close on the day of the President's

St. Louis University football men are turning out in full force for light work. John Alexander Dowie will speak in the Collecum next month.

Bt. Louis business, social, fraternal and civic organizations have adopted fitting resolutions on the life of the dead President.

The three principal Republican clubs in Bt. Louis are making an effort at consolidation and are casting about for a leader.

Policeman Lawrence P. Scully will marry like Josle Lehmann, whom he rescued from a firm.

The St. Louis Transfer Company team-sters who are on a strike have not yet reached an agreement with the company. The American Pharmaceutical Associa-tion, in session in St. Louis, elected officers for the ensuing year.

The County Clerks' Association of Missouri begins its annual convention in St.

House of Delegates and Council a resolutions of respect and adjourned light, in sympathy for the death of lent McKinley.

Director of Exhibits of the World's Fair. Charles H. Jones, secretary to former Chief of Police Campbell, appointed Smoke

GENERAL DOMESTIC

The Confederates of Barton County will hold a reunion at Lamar, Mo., on September M. Congressman M. E. Benton and Governor William J. Stone will speak.

fer announces that there will be n statement of the terms of settlemen

RAILROADS

The annual report of the Milwaukee and E. Paul has been made public.

A new line has been agreed upon to mark the boundary between the Western and Bouthwestern Passenger Associations in the Chief clerks who complie the Memphismate sheet met here yesterday. All railroad offices and shops will b

Wabash sells tickets all trains Saturday, ptember II; good returning Sunday night, ptember II; and Monday morning, Sep-mber II. Eighth and Olive. Take Parker's Headache Powders. They are safe and sure. All druggists. Price 190

Marine Intelligence.

York, Sept. II.—Arrived: Cevic, Liv
Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, from

Briedrich der Grosse, from Brern.

Plymouth, Sept. II.—Arrived: Graf Wairess, from New York.
Queensiown, Sept. II.—Arrived: Westernnd, from Philadelphia, for Liverpool.
New York, Sept. II.—Sailed: Celtic, Liveroli Lahn, Bremen, via Southampton.
Then Thin. Sept. II.—Arrived: Adato, ortical, Ora., via Ladysmith, British

Blar, Sept. 18.—Arrived: Hohen-New York, for Naples and Genos. by, New Bouth Wales, Sept. 18.—Ar-reviously: Sonoma, San Francisco, solute and Auckland.

Singa, Sept. II.—Sailed; Phoenic Hamburg), New York. York, Sept. II.—Arrived; Steam Gence, via Naples and Gibraltar.

ent effect and perfect safety with se may use Syrum of Figs, under use. makes it their favorite to get the true and genuine arti-r the name of the California Fig-printed near the bottom of the for sale by all drungists.

ASSASSIN STILL FEIGNS INSANITY.

Czolgosz Stands Mute When Ar raigned on Charge of Killing the President.

IGNORED HIS LEGAL COUNSEL

Hisses of Spectators and Questions of Court Failed to Move the Anarchist.

PLEA OF NOT GUILTY MADE.

Attorney for the Accused Per forms His Disagreeable Duty, and Appears as Spokesman for the Prisoner.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 17 .- Leon F. Czolgosa, he assassin of President McKinley, was arraigned before Judge Edward K. Emery in the County Court at 3 o'clock this afternoon on the indictment for murder in the first degree. Again the stubborn prisoner refused to plead or even utter a word or sound, and Loran L. Lewis, ex-Supreme Court Justice, entered a plea of not guilty. The accused will be tried in the Supreme Court next

Prisoner Hissed by Speciators. Crowds flocked to the City Hall to-day to ee the prisoner, and the most notable incident of the day was the hissing of the prisoner by the crowds who surged around him as he was being escorted down the stairs, which were still draped in mourning garb. The strong guard of putrolmer and Deputy Sheriffs had been dispensed with, so that the people were able to get nearer the prisoner as he passed to and Refused to Consult Counsel. As a result of the urging of President Adelbert Moot of the Eric County Bar As-sociation, Judge Lewis, one of the attorneys assigned as counsel by Judge Emery yes-terday, called at the Eric County jail at 2 o'clock this afternoon to see the prisoner. Czolgosz refused to talk to Judge Lewis and even refused to answer questions as to whether or not he wanted any counsel. Judge Lewis said that, nevertheless, ne would appear for the prisoner upon arraign-ment, even if he decided not to accept the assignment of the court.

Absolutely no demonstration having bee made against the prisoner yesterday, the authorities decided that a strong guard was unnecessary to-day. Czolgosz was taken from the jall through the tunnel under Delaware avenue to the City Hall by Detectives Solomon and Geary, being handcuffed to the latter.

Unmoved by Badge of Mourning.
In passing from the basement of the City Hall to the court room on the second floor, Czolgosz was compelled to pass close to the black and white bunting with which the piliars, cellings, windows and stairways of the City Hall were draped, when the body of the President was lying in state Sunday, which garb will not be removed until after the burial on Thursday. These evidences of the city's grief apparently made not the slightest impression on the prisoner, and he gave no more heed to them or to the large portraits of the President tastily draped with American flags than he did to the questions of the court of the District Attorney. Unmoved by Badge of Mourning.

Attorney.

Assassin Refused to Plead.

The prisoner entered the court-room just as the City Hall clock was striking 3 o'clock, and as many of the curious spectators as could surged into the court-room behind him. A murmur ran through the audience, but the gavel of the Judge and the tipstaff of the crier soon restored order. As soon as Czolgosz was before the bar and the handcuffs were removed, District nent. He read the principal charges of the

"How do you plead, guilty or not guilty?"
Not a sound was uttered by the prisoner.
He stood mute before the bar of justice, apparently continuing his feint of insanity which was noticed for the first time when he was taken into court vestered. ne was taken into court yesterday. His curly hair was disheveled, and, although curly hair was disheveled, and, although his linen was white and clean, his disor-dered clothes and the growth of his beard gave him an unkempt appearance.
Still Shamming Insanity.

Although his demeanor was still one of stubbornness, he gave a little more evidence of concern than upon his first presence in court. When questions were being asked of him rapidly he moistened his lips with his

In his reaming glances the prisoner's eve met those of a reporter who stared him full in the face. In a moment the prisoner's eye lids drooped and he shifted uneasily. leasiness, Czolgosz's appearance was that of a man shamming insanity.

When the prisoner refused to plead, the District Attorney asked him if he understood what had been read, and receiving no answer, told him that he had been indicted for murder in the first degree, that he could answer "yes" or "no." an instant Czolgosz glanced at Mr. Penny and it was thought that he intended to speak, but he did not.

speak, but he did not.

Prisomer's Commel Enters Pies.
Judge Lewis then addressed the court at length, saying that he had called upon the defendant, but had been unable to ascertain of any wish on the defendant's part as to the employment of counsel. He said that his associate, Judge Titus, was in Milwaukee, but that he had appeared informally, to enter a plea of not guilty in behalf of the defendant, as the law required such a plea under the circumstances. He asked permission to reserve the right He asked permission to reserve the right to withdraw the plea and enter social plea or interpose a demurrer, if, after con-sulting with Judge Titus, they decided not to ask the Court to assign other counsel. The Judge expressed his regret that his name had been mentioned in connection name had been mentioned in connection with this trial, as he had been out of prac-tice for some considerable time, and had a very strong repugnance to appearing, algh that was a reason which would ap-

District Attorney Penny gave notice that he would move to have the indictment transferred to the Supreme Court for trial nd would also notice the trial for next Monday morning.

"I know of no reason why the defendant should not be ready next Monday," re-plied Judge Lewis. At his request, the or-ders will not be entered until Judge Titus returns, which will probably be within a Judge Lewis said that he might also like an order of the court for alienists to examine the prisoner, as the District Attorney had informed him that eminentalienists had examined the prisoner on behalf of the people. This gave rise to the belief that a special plea of insanity may be entered by the counsel for the defense.

"Remove the prisoner," said Judge Emery, and Csolgous was taken back to the jail by the underground route, again passing the garb of mourning.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH-In accordance with the proclamation of the President and of the Governor of this State, the congregations of the Second Presbyterian and First Congregational churches will unite with this church in appropriate memorial services Thursday morning, at 11 o'chock.

LAST SAD RITES AT WASHINGTON.

Continued From Page One.

of the Cabinet, a number of ex-members and behind them the diplomatic corps.

Curtains were drawn, so it was difficult to distinguish their occupants. Solemnly the funeral purty wound down past the Treasury building and into the broad sweep of Pennsylvania avenue amid profound silence that was awful to those who only six months ago had witnessed the enthusiastic plaudits which greeted the dead man as he made the same march to assume for as he made the same march to assume for a second time the honors and burdens of the presidential office.

The artillery band played a solemn dirge as, with slow steps, it led the sorrowful way down the avenue. All the military organi-zations carried their arms, but with colors draped and furled. The crowds were silent, all was sad, mournful and impressive. All heads were uncovered and many were bowed in apparently silent prayer as the hearse passed along. The slow drizzling rain was falling.

After the carriages in which were the diplomats followed a long line of others containing the Justices of the Supreme Court, the Senate and House committees appointed to attend the funeral, the local udiciary, the Assistant Secretaries of the judiciary, the Assistant Secretaries of the several executive departments, members of the several commissions and official representatives of the insular Government. The remainder of the procession was composed of a large representation of local bodies of Knights Templars, over a thousand members of the Grand Army of the Republic, the United Confederate veterans of the city of Washington and of Alexandria, Va.; various religious and patriotic societies, including the Sons of the American Revouscluding the Sons of the American Revolu-tion secret societies and labor organizations and representatives of out-of-town organirations.

The Military Order of the Loyal Legion, of which President McKinley was an honored member, with a representation from New York and Pennsylvania commanderies, formed a conspicuous part in this portion of the procession, as also did the Knights Templars of this city and of Alexandria. Va., and a battalion of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, The full force of letter carriers of Washington, each with a band of black crape around his arm, waiked to the solemn tread of the dirge. The ban-ners of all organizations were folded and draped with black, and all the marching civilians wore mourning badges and white gloves. Fife and drum corps bands rendered at frequent intervals along the route the President's favorite hymn "Nearer, My God to Thee" God, to Thee."

The procession was nearly an hour and a half passing a given point. TREMENDOUS THRONG WAITED AT THE CAPITOL.

For several hours before the arrival of the funeral cortege at the east front of the Capitol an impenetrable cordor of humanity had massed along the walk and areas fronting the plaza. Thousands upon thousands of sorrowing citizens had gathered here to pay their last tribute of respect and love to the memory of the dead magistrate.

The entrance to the Senate and House wings of the Capitol, and the great marble staircases ascending from the plaza to the respective entrances of the House and Sen ate, were jammed with spectators. A good rain was falling, but despite this the vast crowds clung to their places. It was a silent throng. Scarcely even was the murmur of whispered conversations audible.

The police arrangements were perfected early in the day. Captains Cross and Pierson, by direction of the Superintendent of Police, Major Charles Spivester, cleared the plaza and threw around it a cordon of ofof the Capitol, in which the religious exercises incident to the obsequies were to be held, was reserved for distinguished guests and for the entrance of the funeral party. Shortly after 9 o'clock selected details from the Nineteenth, Thirty-ninth and One Hundred and Thirteenth. dred and Thirteenth companies. Artillery Corps, under command of Captain W. E. Ellis, arrived and were stationed on the Ealls, arrived and were stationed on the north side of the main steps ascending from the plaza to the rotunda. A similar detachment of seamen from the United States battleship Illinois, under command of Lieutenant De Stirguer and Naval Cadets Williams and Bruff, together with a detail of marines from Washington Barracks, under command of Captain J. H. Russell, was stationed on the south side of the steps. Shorttioned on the south side of the steps. Shortly afterwards prominent officers of the army and navy, in full dress uniform, began to arrive in carriages. They did not enter the rotunda at once, but remained on the portico to form, in accordance with general orders, appear of the greatest of the President's remains.

Admiral Dewey was an early arrival. He was attired in the brilliant uniform of the Admiral of the Navy, but wore the tion service sword, with its knot of crape at the hilt, instead of the handsome sword presented to him by the American people. He was given a most cordial reception. BODY BORNE TO

At 10:12 o'clock the head of the procession arrived at the north end of the Capitol plaza, but instead of swinging directly into the plaza and passing in front of the Capi tol, as usually is done on the occasion of presidential inaugurations, the military contingent passed eastward on B street, thence south on First street east. Headed by Major General John R. Brooke and staff, and jor General John R. Brooke and staff, and the Fifth Artillery Corps Band, the troops swept around to the south end of the plaza and then murched to position fronting the main entrance to the Capitol. As soon as they had been formed at rest, the artillery the right of the entrance, the funeral cortege with its guard of honor entered the plaza from the north. As the hearse halted in front of the main staircase, the troops, in spiration of the Almighty, conspired to conform a man admirable in his moral temporary and aims. We none of us can found, I

The guard of honor cended the steps, the naval officers on the right and the army officers on the left, forming a cordon on each side, just within the ranks of the

from the army and four from the navy, tenderly drew the flag-draped casket out of the hearse, the bands sweetly walled the pleading notes of "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Every head in the vast attendant throng was bared. Tear-bedimmed eyes were raised to heaven and a silent prayer went up from the thousands of hearts. With careful and solemn tread the body-bearers their precious burden and tenderly bore to the catafalque in the rotunda.

The funeral services at the Capitol over the remains of the late President McKinley were simple and beautiful. They were of the form prescribed by the Methodist Church. Two hymns, a prayer, an address and a benediction comprised all of it, yet the im-pression left at the end was of perfection. IMPRESSIVE SERVICE A THE CAPITOL.

At 11:20 o'clock the Cabinet entered and were seated to the south of the platform, and then to the strains of "Neurer, My God, to Thee" by the Marine Band outside God. to Thee" by the Marine Band outside the casket was borne into the rotunda. General Gillespie and Colonel Bingham led the way, and every one arose. The guard of honor on either side separated and the casket was placed gently upon the catafalque. Next came members of the family of the deceased, Abner McKinley leading. They were seated near the head of the caket. Mrs. McKinley was not present. Senator Hanna was with the family party.

Next the Diplomatic Corps entered, all in full court regalia, and were seated to the south. Former President Cleveland, with General Wilson, his escort, sat in the first row. Lastly came President Boosevelt, escorted by Captain Cowles and preceded by Mr. Cortelyou, secretary to the President. He was given a seat at the end of the row occupied by the Cabinet, just south of the casket. Mr. Roosevelt's face was set and he appeared to be restraining his emotions with difficulty.

When the noise occasioned by seating the late comers had ceased a hush fell upon the people, and then the choir softly sang "Lead, Kindly Light." Cardinal Newman's divine anthem, while every one stood in reverence.

At the conclusion of the hymn the Revthe casket was borne into the rotun

it the conclusion of the hymn the Rev and Doctor Henry R. Naylor, Presidin fer of the Washington District M. E urch, delivered the invocation, while th ELOQUENT PRAYER FOR A BEREAVED NATION. "O Lord God, our Heavenly Father and action states at the control of the last sorrow! To whom can we go in such an hour as this but unto thee? Thou only art able to comfort and support the afflicted. Death strikes down the tallest and best of men and charge the strikes of the support the strikes down the support the support the strikes down the support the s men and changes are continually occurring among nations and communities. But we have been taught that thou art the same yesterday, to-day and forever; that with thee there is no variableness nor the least shadow of turning. So in the midst of our grief we turn to thee for help.

"We thank thee, O Lord, that years ago thou didst either to the realizer a man whose thou didst give to this nation a man whose loss we mourn to-day. We thank thee for the pure and unselfish life he was enabled to live in the midst of so eventful an ex-perience. We thank thee for the faithful and distinguished services which he was enabled to render to thee, to our country and to the world.

"We bless thee for such a citizen, for such a lawmaker, for such a Governor, for such a President, for such a husband, for such a Christian example and for such a friend, But, O Lord, we deploy our loss to day and directly implore deplore our loss to-day and sincerely implore deplore our loss to-day and sincerely implore thy sanctifying benediction. We pray thee for that dear one who has been walking by his side through the years, sharing his triumphs and partaking of his sorrows. Give to her all needed sustenance and the comfort her stricken heart so greatly craves, and under the shadow of thus great calamity may she learn as never before the fatherhood of God and the matchless character of his sustaining grace.

HAVING GUIDANCE SUBJECT.

DIVINE GUIDANCE SOUGHT FOR PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

"And, O Lord, we sincerely pray for him upon whom the mantle of presidential authority has so suddenly and unexpectedly failen. Help him to walk worthy the high vocation whereunto he has been called. He needs thy guiding hand and thine inspiring spirit continually. May he always present to the nation and to the world divinely itlumined judgment, a brave heart and an nsuffied character.

"Hear our prayer, O Lord, for the official family of the administration; those men who were associated with thy servant the President in the administration of the affairs of government. Guide them in all their deliberations to the nation's welfare and to the glory of God.

And now, Lord, we humbly pray for thy blessing and consolation to come to all the people of our land and nation. Forgive our past shortcomings, our sins of omission as well as our sins of commission, "Help us to make the Golden Rule the standard of our lives, that we may 'do unto others as we would have them do unto us,' and thus become indeed a people whose Gcd is the Lord." As the pastor ceased the voices of the choir swelled forth and the rich, pure so-prano notes of Mrs. Thomas C. Noyes led the hymn "Some Time We'll Understand." The music was remarkably effective and touching as the notes came back in soft echoes from the fullness of the dome over-

As soon as the hymn ceased Bishop Edward G. Andrews of the Methodist Episco-pal Church, who had come from Ohio to say the last words over the remains of his lifelong friend and parishioner, arose. He stood at the head of the casket and spoke in a sympathetic voice and with many evidences of deep emotion. The accoustic qualities of the rotunda do not favor such addresses, and, although the Bishop spoke in clear and firm tones, the rippling echoes from all sides made it difficult for those a short distance from him to catch his words,

He said, in part: BISHOP ANDREWS'S TRIBUTE

Blessed be the God and Father of Our Lord, who of his abundant mercy has begotten us again unto a lively hope of the resurrection of Christ from the dead to an inhertance uncorruptible, undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for us who are now, by the power of God through faith unto salvation, ready to be revaled in the last time.

"The services for the dead are fitly and almost of necessity services of religion and of immortal hope. In the presence of the shroud and the coffin and the narrow home questions concerning intellectual quality concerning public station, cocerning great achievements, sink into comparative insig-nifiance; and questions concerning charac-ter and man's relation to the Lord and Giver of life, even the life eternal, emerge to our view and impress themselves upon

"Character abides. We bring nothing into this world; we can carry nothing out. We ourselves depart with all the accumulations of tendency and habit and quality which the years have given to us. We ask, there-fore, even at the grave of the illustrious, not altogether what great achievemen commended themselves to the memory and affection or respect of the world, but chiefly of what sort they were; what the interior nature of the man was; what were his af What his relation to the infinite Lord of the Universe and to the compassionate Savior of mankind; what his fitness for that great hereafter to which he

"And such great questions come to us with the moment, even in the hour when we gather around the bier of those whom we profoundly respect and eulogite and whom we tenderly love. In the years to come we will give full utterance as to the high statesmanship and great achievements of the illustrious man whom we mourn to-day. We shall not touch them to-day. The na-tion already has broken out in its grief and poured its tears, and is still pouring them, over the loss of a belowed man. It is well over the loss of a beloved man. It is well. But we ask this morning of what sort this man is, so that we may perhaps, knowing the moral and spiritual life that is past, be able to shape the far withdrawing fuper and aims. We none of us can foubt, I think, that even by nature he was eminently gifted. The kindly, calm and equitable temperament, the kindly and generous heart, the love of justice and right, and the tendency toward faith and loyalty to unseen vened the training for which as was always tenderly thankful and of which even this great nation from sea to sea continually has taken note.

EFFECTS OF MR. McKINLEY'S EARLY, HOME TRAINING.

"It was an humble home in which he was of his life he bent reverently before that mother whose example and teaching and prayer had so fashioned his mind and all them came to him the church with a istration of power. He accepted the truth Jesus Christ, through whom God was re-vealed. He gladly partook with his brethrer of the symbols of mysterious passion and redeeming love of the Lord Jesus Christ, He was helpful in all of those beneficences and activities, and from the church, to the close of his life, he received inspiration that lifted him above much of the trouble and weakness incident to our human nature, and blessings be to God, may we say, in the last and final hour they enabled him confidently, tender say; It is his will, not ours, that will be done."

"Such influences gave to us William Mc-Kinley. And with all, he was a man of incorruptible person and political integrity. I suppose no one ever attempted to approach him in the way of a bribe; and we remember, with great felicitation at this time for such an example to ourselves, that when great financial difficulties and perils encompassed him, he determined to deliver all he possessed to his creditors; that there should be no challenge of his perils enco perfect honesty in the matter. A man of immaculate purity shall we say? No stain was upon his escutcheon; no syllable of suspicion that I ever heard was whispered against his character. He walked in perfect and noble self-control.

"Beyond that, this man had somehow "Beyond that, this man had somehow wrought in him a great and generous love for his fellow-men. He believed in men. He had himself bees brought up among the common people. He knew their labors, struggles, necessities. He loved them. Shall I speak a word next of that which I will hardly advert to? The tenderness of that domestic love which has so often been commented upon? I pass it with only that word. I take it that no words can set forth fully the unfaitering kindness and carefulness and upbearing love which belonged to this great man.

"And he was a man who believed in right.

In honor of the memory of our late

President William McKinley

Our store will close at 12 O'Clock Noon on Thursday, September 19th.

Kruggs landervoort & Karne

As a Tribute of Respect

To our martyred President, we, the undersigned, will close our respective business establishments Thursday, at 12 o'clock noon:

Wm. Barr D. G. Co. D. Crawford & Co. B. Nugent & Bro. D. G. Co. Famous. Penny & Gentles. Grand-Leader. Scruggs, Vandervoort & Barney. J. G. Brandt Shoe Co. Seibert, Good & Co. Browning, King & Co. Mi'ls & Averill. Salveter & Stewart.

F. W. Humphrey. T. B. Boyd & Co. Good Luck (Schmitz & Shroder). Derr Bros. Scarritt-Comstock Furniture Co. L. E. Green & Son. Schaper Bros. The Boston. C. E. Hilts Shoe Co. A. Moll Grocer Co. Frank Lind. Simmons Hardware Co. (Broadway Store).

who had a profound conviction that the courses of this world must be ordered in accordance with everlasting righteousness. or this world's highest point of good will can never be reached; that no nation can expect success in life except as it con-forms to the eternal laws of the infinite Lord and pass itself in individual and collective activity according to that divin

MAN'S MORAL GREATNESS APPRECIATED BY OPPONENTS.

"And, now, may I say further that it eemed to me that to whatever we may ttribute all the illustriousness of this man, all the greatness of his achievem whatever of that we may attribute to his intellectual character and quality, whatever thorough study which he gave to the vari-ous questions thrust upon him for atten-tion, for all his success as a politician, as a statesman, as a man of this great cou try, those successes were largely due to the moral qualities of which I have spoken. everywhere, and particularly those who

"Those qualities even associated with him in kindly relations those who were his political opponents. They made it possible for him to enter that land with which he as one of the soldiers of the Union had been In some sort at war to draw closer the tie that was to bind all the parts in one firm and indissoluble union. They commanded the confidence of the great body of Congress, so that they listened to his plans and accepted kindly and hopefully and trust-fully all his declarations. His qualities gave him reputation, not in this land alone, but throughout the world, and made it possible for him to minister in the style in which he has within the last two or three years ministered to the welfare and peace of humankind. And will such a man die? Is possible that he who created, redeen transformed, uplifted, illumined such a man The divine word of the Scripture leaves t no room for doubt. 'I,' said one whom he trusted, 'am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth in me, though he wer dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never "Lost to us, but not to his God. Lost from earth, but entered heaven. Lost from these labors and tolls and perils, but entered into the everlasting peace and everadvascing progress. Blersed be God, who gives us this hope in the hour of our calamity, and enables us to triumph through him who hath redeemed us.

"If there is a personal immortality before him, let us also rejoice that there is an large and ever-growing people who, through the ages to come, the generations that are yet to be, will look back upon this life, upon its nobility and purity and service to hu-manity, and thank God for it. The years draw on when his name shall be counted among the illustrious of the arth. William of Orange is not dead. Cromwell is not dead. Washington lives in the hearts and lives of his countrymen. Lincoln, with his infinite sorrow, lives to teach us and lead us on. And McKinley shall summon all statesmen and all his countrymen to pure living, nobler aims, sweeter and immorta

THE HONORED DEAD.

The address lasted only a bare quarter of an hour. As the Bishop concluded, every-one in the vast rotunds rose and the choir, intoning the air, hundreds of voices joined in the grand old hymn, "Nearer, My God, to

It was an affecting moment. In the midst of the singing. Rear Admiral Robley Evans, advancing with silent tread, placed a beautiful blue floral cross at the foot of the uplifted hands the benediction was pro-nounced by the Reverend Doctor W. H. Chapman, acting restor, of the Metropolitan Church. This ended the religious service. There was a pause for a few minutes while the ushers cleared the aisies and the assemblage began to withdraw. First to reassemblage began to withdraw. First to retire was President Roosevelt, and as he had entered so he left, preceded a short distance by Major McCauley and Captain Glimore, with Colonel Blingham and Captain. Cowles almost pressing against him. The remainder of the company ratingd in the order in which they entered, the Cabinet members following the President and after them going the diplomatic corps, the Supreme Court. Senators and Representatives, officers of the army and navy and officials of lass desires.

EXPOSITION WILL CLOSE AS MARK OF RESPECT.

Building Will Not Be Open To-Morrow From Noon Till 6 P. M .- Coliseum Memorial Services Will Be Free to the Public-Exhibitors Ask for Two Additional Weeks.

The Exposition will be closed to-morrow afternoon from 2 to 6 p. m., as a mark of respect to the family of President McKinley. It will be open as usual in the morning and evening. From 12 noon to 6 p. m., during the memorial meeting of citizens in the Coliseum in bonor of the late President McKinley, the Coliseum will be open to the public free of charge.

The exhibitors are preparing a petition to be presented to the management asking that the Exposition be kept open two weeks longer than the period already set, namely, from October 12 to October 25. The exhibitors are so well pleased with the attendance and the interest shown in the exhibits that they have decided to ask this as a special favor.

The attendance yesterday was all that could be desired. The concerts were thoroughly appreciated, and the special features in the Coliseum, including the new series of living pictures of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, Woodford's dog circus and elephant show and Herr Grenada and Alma Fedora's troupe, were thoroughly enjoyed. To-day's music programme includes a number of soles by members of Seymour's Band, and vocal numbers. "Oblation," by Miss Nannie K. Dodson, and "Like the Violet Is My Love," by Mignon Shattinger.

DRUGGISTS HEAR REPORTS AND ELECT OFFICERS.

Yesterday's session of the American Pharmaceutical Association was brief. The association convened at 10 o'clock a, m. at the Southern and heard committee reports. which were discussed and approved. The election of officers, whose nominations were published in The Republic yesterday, was he principal business of the session.

In the afternoon the commercial section paper on "Special Methods of Advertising for Retail Druggists." J. H. Beal of Scio, O., read a paper on the subject of fixing prices, in which it was argued that manufacturers were justified in fixing the prices t which their proprietary medicines are re-

William Mittlebach of Boonville, Mo , read william attreeach of boonyies, so, read a paper on "Containers," arguing that prices charged for bottles and other containers were unreasonably high. A resolution supporting his paper was adopted.

Lewis Emanuel of Pittsburg, Pa., read a property of thical states. tion supporting his paper was adopted.

Lewis Emanuel of Pittsburg, Pa., read a paper on "The Profitable Side of Ethical Pharmacy." Frank R. Partridge of Augusta, Me., addressed the meeting, following which the following officers were elected. Chairman, F. W. Meissner of La Porte, Ind.; secretary, E. G. Eberlie of Dallas, Tex. Members of the Executive Committee elected are: F. B. Lillie of Oklahoma City. Ok.; William Mittlebach of Boonville, Mo., and Charles L. Meyer of Baltimore, Md.

Emergency Post Office.

elected are: F. H. Lallie of Oktahoma City.
Ok.; William Mittlebach of Boonville, Mo., and Charles L. Meyer of Baltimore, Md.

Emergency Post Office.

Postmaster Baumhoff has established an emergency station in the Southern Hotel to accimmodate the visiting druggists who will be in convention there until the last of the week. All departments of the regular service are represented in the emergency station. Mr. Baumhoff said yesterday that he would install such branches hereafter as often as there was a convention or large meeting of visitors in the city.

The following named delegates registered at headquarters yesterday:

Mrs. C. W. J. H. Hahn; Mrs. F. H. Fricke: Karl Cook: Taylor Stickney, Mrs. Chas. Staudinser: Miss Kate Schleuter; Mrs. J. K. Ilhardt, Mrs. C. A. Lips; H. D. Delskamp; A. H. Stille: Mrs. H. W. Friedewald, E. P. McCullough; Carl G. Hinrichs: Wr. G. D. Hinrichs: Miss Anna Hinrichs: W. H. Lamont: Charles S. Ruckstath; Mrs. G. S. Ruckstath; George R. Merrell; George F. Durant; H. G. Fadley; Thomas Layton; Adel Bollman; The Gorge F. Hagenow; Miss M. A. Fruch; Doctor G. H. Bartman; The Gorge F. Hagenow; Miss M. A. Fruch; Doctor G. H. Elbricht: Mrs. W. R. Lamont: Charles Herbert; A. R. Charles, Mrs. C. R. Schweitzer, Paul Schneider, Rassell Riley Mrs. Franchs Hemm. Mrs. Theo. R. Mrs. C. R. Roments: F. G. Doctor G. F. L. Elbricht: Mrs. W. R. Schweitzer, Paul Schneider, Rassell Riley Mrs. Franchs Hemm. Mrs. Theo. R. Mayers, Mrs. C. E. Crecellus, New York; L. Ardery, Hutchinson, Kas.; C. E. Crecellus, New Albany, Ind. Mrs. C. E. Crecellus, New A

St. Louis; Mrs. W. C. Pope. St. Louis; J. A. Koch, Pittsburg, Pa.; Mrs. T. B. Raina, St. Louis; A. L. Morgan, Camden, Ark.; George C. Partells, Camp Point, Ill.; L. M. Combs. St. Louis; Charles M. Plaips, Racine, Wis.; George C. Partells, Camp Point, Ill.; L. M. Combs. St. Louis; Charles M. Plaips, Racine, Wis.; George C. Partells, Camp Point, Ill.; L. M. Combs. St. Louis; Charles M. Plaips, Racine, Wis.; George Chapter, Nokomia, Ill.; Doctor A. B. Lyons, Betord, Mich.; H. T. Eberle. Watertown, Wis.; Mrs. L. Welche, C. Lewis Diehl, Louisville, Ky.; L. G. Simmons, St. Louis; Mrs. Paul Schneider, St. Louis; Mrs. Miss. Miss. Josie Wabous, Minneapolis, Minn.; Doctor E. L. Wanous, Minneapolis, Minn.; Doctor E. L. Wanous, Minneapolis, Minn.; Doctor E. L. Wanous, Minneapolis, Minn.; Doctor E. Louis; E. W. Morse, Mount Vernon, Ill.; Theodore C. Loehr, Carlinville, Ill.; Fr. Y. Perry, St. Louis; E. W. Morse, Mount Vernon, Ill.; Theodore C. Loehr, Carlinville, Ill.; Fr. H. Plump, New York Capentary, Jackson, Miss.; W. H. Averill, Frankfort, Ky. O. L. Bieblinger, St. Louis; Thomas Knoebel, Eand St. Louis; W. O. Steinmeyer, Carlinville, Ill.; Smil Boerner, Iowa City, Ia.; Mrs. Emil L. Boerner, Iowa City, Ia.; Mrs. Emil L. Boerner, Iowa City, Ia.; Mrs. Emil L. Boerner, Iowa City, Ia.; Mrs. Finlip Kant. St. Louis; Ambrose Mueller, Webster, Groves, Mo.; J. T. Davis, Kansas City, Mo.; Wm. Hanenstein, New York City; C. N. Kinney, Des Moines, Ia.; E. A. Sayre, New York City; Mo.; Wm. E. A. Sayre, New York City; L. Ardery, Hutchinson, Kas.; C. E. Crecelius, New York City; L. Ardery, Hutchinson, Kas.; Mrs. L. Ardery, Hutchinson, Kas.; Mrs. L. Ardery, Hutchinson, Kas.; Mrs. L. Ardery, Plushinson, Holling, Mrs. C. E. Crecelius, New York City; Henry Krsemer, Philadelphia, Pu.; J. H. Chemutt, Hot Surinss, Ark.; H. C. Wesner, Windsor, Mo.; J. C. McLean, Louisville, Ny.; R. L. Hope, Chrina, Ching, M. H. W. L. W

Impaired Digestion

The unessiness after eating fits of nervous headache, sourness of the tomach, and disagreeable beiching may no be very bad now, but they will be if he sto suffered to grow weaker.

Dyspepsia is such a misers that the tendency to it sould be given early attention. This is completely over-

Hood's Sarsuparilla